October

Saturday October 4th 7:30 PM Off The Grid: Life On Mesa

25 miles from town, a million miles from mainstream society, a loose knit community of radicals live in the desert, struggling to survive with little food, less water, and no electricity as they cling to their unique version of the American dream. (68 min)

Saturday October 11th 7:30 PM The Aggressives

This striking and illuminating documentary explores and exposes the secret subculture of New York lesbians living as "aggressives." Often mistaken for men these women range from pretty tomboys to the blatantly butch boldly creating their own identities outside of society's established sexual categories. (75 min)

Saturday October 18th 7:30 PM The End of Suburbia

There are serious questions beginning to emerge about the sustainability of suburban life. With brutal honesty and a touch of irony, The End of Suburbia explores the American Way of Life and its prospects as the planet approaches a critical era, as global demand for fossil fuels begins to outstrip supply. (90 minutes)

Saturday October 25th 7:30PM Farmingville

A provocative, complex, and emotionally charged look into the ongoing nationwide controversy surrounding a suburban community, its ever-expanding population of illegal immigrants, and the shockingly hate-based attempted murders of two Mexican day laborers. (78 Min)
